The President Pays a High Compliment to His Assistants. sires No Cabinet Changes.

(BT THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.)

AJASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President McKinley today announced clearly and forcefully to the members of his Cabinet his desire that they should all remain with him during the four years of his coming administration. His wishes were made known in an extended speech at the Cabinet meeting in the White House. Responses were made by all of the members present. While there were no definite pledges from any of them that they would accept the portfolios thus tendered afresh, there was, on the other hand, no definite declination.

Today's proceedings set forth the wishes of the President in the matter and relieve the members of the Cabinet of the customary obligation of tendering their resignations at the end of the term, unless they have made an irrevocable decision that it will be impossible for them to continue in office. The proceedings also set at rest speculation and slate-making on the part of the country's political prophets, for it is understood generally that there is but one doubtful factor in the homogeneity of the present Cabinet. That factor is Atty.-Gen. Griggs, as he holds his present position at a great financial sacrifice. Still Mr. Griggs replied in terms of warm appreciation to the complimentary remarks of the President, and voiced no intention of retiring from his present position.

This is not the first time that the President has expressed to the members of the Cabinet his pleasure at the support they had given him. He said as much in a general way at the last Cabinet meeting, when the members, several of whom had been scattered by the political campaign, got together for the first time and congratulated him upon the outcome of the election. Today the President evidently had prepared for the ecasion, and in his address he reviewed the work of the administration in the past four years. He said that if the result of the recent election was an endorsement of his administration, it was no less an endorsement of the men who had stood by him in the time of stress and adversity. The credit for success, he said, he placed with the heads of his various departments, and he should shrink from entering upon another four years of office, unless he could be assured that he would have with him a majority at least of the men who form his present official household. He said he knew that in asking them to remain with him there was

He said that, for his part, it deeply appreciated the complimentary references made by his chief, and that he thought there was not a member of the Cabinet who would sever such pleasant official relations without regret, and even then only in case of the most urgent reasons for retirement.

Becretaries Gags, Long, Hitchcock, Wilson, Atty.-Gen. Griggs and Postmaster-General Smith each spoke in turn, and in much the same veln. Becretary Root was the only absent member from the meeting, having left for Cuba to look over military affairs there, and, at the same time, to try to recuperate from his long and serious illness. The list of responses, therefore, was all but complete. It is known that Secretary Root is in much the same position as Atty.-Gen. Griggs, holding his position as acrifice, but willing at the aame time to sacrifice a good deal to comply with the expressed wishes of the President's coming message to Congress, after which the members left with renewed expressions of regard. The meeting stands as one of the most remarkable Cabinet sessions on record.

His resignation, which was offered last June, was accepted today. It is another case of President Andrews of Brown and of Prof. Edward W. Bemis of Chicago University, who lost their positions through free expressions of their opinions.

The announcement of Dr. Rass's resignation created a sensation at the university, where for seven years he has been one of the most prominent professors. In speaking of the matter this afternoon, Dr. Ross made the following statement:

STORY OF BEGEROW'S CRIAE.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS. A. R.)
SAN JOSE, Nov. 12.—The Begerow case is progressing rapidly, seven witnesses having been examined today. Most of these were spectators, who were at the brewers' picule on July II last, and saw the Alviso constable shoot Cech and Berger. From the testimony it appears that Begerow, under the influence of liquor, was walking toward an exit from the park with an old man in custody. Cech and Berger were twelve or fifteen feet behind, remonstrating with Begerow for having arrested the old man. Suddenly the constable released his prisoner, turned and fired three shots, killing both.

The most sensational testimony of the day was that of Britt Gruell, a deputy sheriff. Gruell rescued the defendant from the crowd, which was bent on avenging the double murder, and, single-handed kept them at bay for fifteen minutes until help arrived.

"As to that I am not able to answer with authority or certainty," was the reply. "But I do know there was no stoppage of telegraphic communication or any impeding of traffic on the road for a single minute. Furthermore, we who are connected with the offices of the road in Chicago had advices during the day that the grievances long agitated by the telegraphers had been settled. None of the road's operators at any point east of Albuquerque was involved. From Albuquerque west to San Francisco only 200 or 200 operators are employed."

THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M. WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The In-dustrial Commission today heard the testimony of T. P. McCormack, Labor commissioner of the State of Indiana, and of Prof. John G. Brooks of Cam-and of Prof. John G. Brooks of Cambridge, Mass., president of the National Consumers' League.

McCornack's testimony was devoted largely to the subject of arbitration. He said that mode of settling labor disputes was rapidly gaining favor in his State. In some trades arbitration, he said, had almost supplanted strikes, and in many branches of industry contacts between employers and employes he said, had almost supplanted strikes, and in many branches of industry contracts between employers and employes prescribe that in case of difficulty, arbitration shall be resorted to without cossation of work, the result being constantly increasing good feeling between employer and employe.

He urged the necessity and wisdom of enforced arbitration in extreme cases where the interests of the publicare concerned, and where a long strike will bring disaster to the people at large. This method he thought often would avert bloodshed and he considered the method more economical, as well as more humans than calling on the military.

McCormack said that most of the labor troubles were with unorganized labor or new organizations, the older organizations being the most conservative. McCormack said that while the labor organizations might not be friendly to enforced arbitration, the interests of the public at large always should be consulted rather than the wishes of the few directly engaged in a strike.

ways should be consulted rather than the wishes of the few directly engaged in a strike.

Prof. Brooks's testimony was devoted to the question of work in the sweatshops, in the investigation of which he has been engaged for many years. He said the Massachusetts law works fairly well, but that in New York and New Jersey the conditions were most deplorable. He advocated the substitution of factories and argued that the result need not, with the use of proper machinery, be an increase of the prices of the groots manufactured. The change also would result in higher wages and an improvement of the garments. He dwelt on the danger of spreading disease through the shops, saying it is always imminent. Prices were getting to be so low, Brooks said, that Americans very seldom engage in the work. Most of the sweatshop work is done by immigrants from Eastern Europe.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES,)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) It is given out by those who were close to the late Marcus Daly, that the millionaire Copper King's will will prove a big surprise. The entire estate, it is said, will be left to the widow, to be held in trust by her for four children, Margaret, Mary C., Harriet and Marous, Jr. The estate is estimated at not less than $40,000,000. It increased largely in the last two years, and besides, Daly made large sums in speculation.

It is declared that Daly's object in leaving all to the widow was to guard against fortune-hunters seeking marriage with his daughters. Daly had a bitter hatred for such, and many claimants for the hands of his daughters were forbidden his home because of suspicion as to their motives.

WABHINGTON, Nov. 13.—At the Department of Justice it is denied that Atty.-Gen. Griggs has instructed United States District Attorney Baird to institute suits in the Federal Court of Hawaii to set aside all grants, sales, franchises and ieases in Hawaii granted since September 28, 1899.

During the interim between the annexation of the islands and the passage of the Hawaiian act of April 30, 1800, the Attorney-General rendered two opinions to the effect that under the Hawaiian laws then in force there was no power to sell franchises and public lands. By the terms of section 73 of this not, the ratification of such grants and sales during the hiatus was subject to the approval of the President.

According to the Interior Department officials, the only question before the department is as to the validity of the sales and other dispositions of public lands and agreements concerning them made between the dates of July 7, 1898, and September 23, 1899, and when the examination is completed, the Secretary of the Interior will report the matter to the President, with his recommendations. The President, under the law, finally passes on such matters.

10 Decided progress has been made in opening postoffices. It has been the endeavor to have an office in charge of an Americana clerk where the number of troops made it impracticable for the army mail orderities to do the work. Vailles says the correspondence between the natives on the inlands is "as meanill as that of ranchers at our army posts in the States."

There are now twenty-one postoffices under the charge of Americana, of which eleven are money-order offices. Thirty-seven other offices are in charge of army officials for the sale of stamps and the handling of registered matter. The system of service maintained under the Spanish regime for the native mails only has been tried. Each town presidente had to attend to the mail for and from his town free and each town provides regular carriers to adjoining towns, which maive of the mails for hand the revenue of the mails of natives would not be of the ca

It is argued that when the Americans want gold they have only to send bonds back to England, thus depleting the gold reserves, and it is contended that there is ample British capital seeking investment to meet all the requirements of the government.

One suggestion in the market yeaterday was that an issue might be made of a Transval loan for £20,000,000 or £30,000,000 with the interest guaranteed by the British government.

It is evident Sir Michael Hicks-Beach has no easy task before him. In his speech at Bristol he said that he had desired to resign but had been persuaded to remain in office. South African capitalists are protesting against the Transval being saddled with the coat of the war, while British taxpayers are equally anxious to have risks that ought not to be taken by them; employers use machinery that ought to be taken out and sold for old iron. Some countries and States have statutes relating to this subject; inspectors to visit mills and insist on the use of safe appliances, the boxing of machinery, the covering of belts, so as to prevent accidents. Such regulations and inspection have a good purpose, but where they do not exist let us repeat that employers and employers may make contracts for using almost any kind of appliances and machinery, the nature of which is known to them, without violating the law. The only limit is the use of a machine or appliance that would be regarded as a reckless exposure of life. A contract to do this would be void, and if either party were so inclined be could decline to fulfill it.

THE RULE REQUIRING THE USE OF SAFE APPLIANCES MAY BE SET ASIDE.

The reader may now ask the question, what has become of the rule requiring employers to exercise ordinary care in employing servants, appliances, etc.? The answer is, it is and may be set aside whenever employers and emset as the countries of the rule results of the countries of the rule results of the countries of the rule results of t the cases are not numerous in which it appeared that the employé was ignorant of the risk that existed and was known by his master. In aimost all either the employé did know of the risk or it was quite obvious and would have been found out by using ordinary care. But the law remains as it always has been in cases of an unusual risk not known by an employé or which could not have been found out by the exercise of ordinary diligence on his part. In these the master everywhere is liable. Of course, in many of them the question arises, Was the risk an unusual or ordinary one? and there is no way of ever answering this for all cases. Each case stands by itself. The question is one of fact.

In the case of a brakeman who was injured by a defective brake, the railiroad tried to show that the defect was obvious, that he could easily have seen it and consequently the injury was caused by his own negligence. On the other hand it was shown that he had no time to make a proper examination of the brake. The jury decided that he was not negligent and had not impe to make a proper examination of the brake. The jury decided that he was not negligent and had not assumed the risk of using the defective brake. Bald the court of review: "There is no evidence that he ever handled or even saw this brake until he attempted to use it on this occasion. In such circumstances it would not be proper to visit him with the consequences of a knowledge of the defect and a voluntary use of the brake notwithstanding such knowledge."

One other case of an injury may be mentioned that happened in Minnesota. An employé was injured by some cognitat usually were covered. The coverhabee had not of the cover. TEACHING SCIENCE.

Prof. Poshay's Address to the Southern California Academy Last Evening in This City.

The regular monthly meeting of the Southern California Academy of Seinces was held last evening at No. 734 South Broadway. A lecture was delivered by Prof. J. A. Foshay, Superintendent of City Schools, on "The Value of Science Teaching." in which he pointed out that the people of today are placing a higher estimate on that part of, the child's education which is not found in books, than ever before. He also stated that scientific investigation was formerly limited to the higher schools; as it was thought to be impossible for immature minds to receive and assimilate scientific truth.

"This idea," said Prof. Foshay, "has long since faded, and the light of a glorious day shines upon our elementary work, in even the kindergarten department, where the school assists in promoting the minural activities and developing the processes of nature."

He further stated that science and religion must lead in the same direction.

Talking upon the subject of ballast,
J. C. Rockhold, roadmaster for the

"We have raised this piece of track fitty-five feet." said Mr. Rockhold.

"That is to say, if it had remained where we put it, the roadbed would be fitty-five feet above the proper grade, but it sinks out of sight, sometimes at the rate of four feet in a single night, and then we fill it up again. At some distance from the track, on either side of the road, this material is rising in great banks and it is showing Indistitions of compine hacktone.

M. Meade of Topeka, Kan. Mr. Meade had with him a section of a mountain pine cross tie taken from the main line of the Santa Pê, which fitteen years ago was chemically treated and put into the readbed. The tie is preserved in almost perfect condition, is acarcely at all indented by the rail plats, after all these years of pounding, and it is apparently good for fitteen years more. The natural life of the tie, without being treated, is but

The answer is easy: Be honestly not so down with the at the crushing defeat around the party leads as basis on which the party leads as basis on which the party is enclosed and go back to the Democracy of Jofferson, Jackson and Benton. He conservative on the tariff question, and eschew Calbounism. Stand for the best money in the world and eschew Bryanism. On a policy of free trade and depreciated money a party has no more chance before the American people than has a clawless cat in the eternal firea. Then let the party stand for its country's flag, and do not be too fastidious and selected upon. The warratie party in two, and of it is the Northern died to the country and not the in the Northern widely divided as the series from those that denormal the Union, cost might at the assential and the secret from those that denormal the Union, cost might as the secret from those that denormal the Union, cost might as the secret from those that denormal the Union, cost might as the secret from those that denormal the Union, cost might as the secret from the Union, cost might be the might gamise at all. Then the differentiation must go on, and the clearage must become wider. Then the fantastic theorists, the un-American draumers, the people whose path lies toward State, socialism and beyond that anarchy, must gather under the red flag and all the real American people, those who do not dream, but do; the secondary, the lincompetent, the thrifties, the discontented, will gather under the banner of so-called Democracy; and the forceful, the confident, the great army of dears of doughty deeds will assemble under the Republican standard and will go on carrying their country, its industries, its intelligence, its honor and its glory to ever more exalted heights.

The competitive system will not persay from this nation, nor from this world. Through it humanity has won its way from the low level of first force to the apex of twhiteh-century civilination. It is the system under which the fittest survives and the unit persay in the individual, but the triumph of the race comes through the triumphs of each nobled specimen of the mos. Where each man gets his just revery dade principle of true Democracy, and to be truely Democratio the party must turn its back on Bryanized Populism and return to the teachings of the party.

proceeds of the Dusiness. Franting continued in the management of the house until the latter part of October, when defendant abruptly discharged her from his employ and assumed to put an end to the contractual relations existing between them. Plaintiff claimed that her discharge was, wrongful and without cause, and therefore asked damages in the sum of $258. Defendant alleged in his answer in addition to a general denial, that plaintiff conducted the house in an improper and immoral manner but offered no evidence at the trial to sustain this part of his case. Plaintiff testified that defendant wished her to live with him as his mistress and upon her refusal so to do that he discharged her.

Commenting on the evidence in the case, Justice James says:

"There is a strong suggestion in this case that the entire history of the friendship of plaintiff and defendant has not been told. In the letters written by defendant to plaintiff, while the latter was in Blockton, there occurs terms of endearment addressed, to plaintiff which indicate that the footing of their acquaintance was anything but prossic. The sudden rupture and withdrawal of defendant's consideration and solicitude for the welfare of plaintiff, at any rate, defendant avoided, as did also plaintiff, from goting into particular details on this subject, and it must therefore be assumed that plaintiff was discharged by defendant without semicion cause."

MOMENT OF SUSPENSE.

OVER VOTE OF PRECINCT ONE.

A little flurry of excitement was occasioned in the audience chamber of the Supervisors yesterday, during the work at canvassing the election returns.

For a short time it seemed that the vote of one of the precincts of this city might have to be thrown out.

In canvassing the county's vote the board began on Monday with the precincts alphabetically, and by noon yesterday had reached the "IL" precincts alphabetically, and by noon yesterday had reached the "IL" precincts, where the Los Angeles vote was impected. It was precinct 1 that seemed to promise trouble "I make certain successful candidates feel a bit glasky. business at Agricultural Park. He became enraged and made a perfect sham of carrying out the orders of the board.
Then was the time when public confidence of all good citisens (except the

TRIAL OF CAPT. ROBERTS.

The self-styled "Committee of Safety" finds great consolation in condemning the actions of the entire board (except the mayor) for clearing Capt. Roberts of the "trumped up charges" against him. This committee, ursurping the function of public censors, did not hear the evidence, and are therefore incompetent and prejudiced judges. No honest, conscientious, unbiased juror could come to any other conclusion than did the four police commissioners, who, after carefully hearing the evidence in his case, and witnessing his desire to have all the facts brought out, voted to exonerate him. His retirement under the police pension law, was just and right. He had served the city long and faithfully-having given the better part of his life to its service—but his age and condition of health made it necessary that he be granted that retirement which he bed justiy earned, and which was needed for under the police pension law, to which fund he had contributed some 1351, or two dollads per month since the passage of the police pension law, by

A visitor to the Pullerton Consoli-isted plant reports that the company was a well which is now producing fifty barrels a day in spite of the fact hat the casing has not been perfor-ted. What it will do when perforated emains to be seen. OTHER DERRICK SPRAYS.

It is reported that the Kern River oil Company has a flowing well on section 4, 29, 25. The well is 750 feet deep and was put on the pump for the first time Monday, and yesterday began flowing over the casing. The well contains alternate strata of oil sand and clay.

The Oil Center Ofl Company at Temblor is again up against hard luck; its only hope for success is in the drilling of another well. The first well drilled proved the territory was so hopelessly crooked that the operators were compelled to abandon it.

An old well of the Oid Dominion Oil Company in the McKittrick field is now 1500 feet deep and arrangements are being made to send it in to a depth of 2000 feet if oil is not found before that level.

A LAW UNTO HIMSELF. Every Man Must Be That, to Retain

His Health and Digestion.

There are thousands of people in this world who eat no meat from one year's end to another, and certain savage tribes in Africa and Polynasis are almost exclusively meat eaters; but while there are thousands of these, there are millions who live upon a mixed diet of meat, vegetables and grains and if numbers is a criterion it would seem that a mixed diet is the best for the human family.

that a mixed diet is the best for the human family.

The fact thet you will find many vegetarians who appear healthy and vigorous and meat eaters equally so, and any number of robust specimens who eat both meat and vegetables and anything else that comes their way all goes to show that the old saw is the true one, that every man must be a law to himself as to what he shall eat and drink.

To repair the waste of tissue in brain workers as well as to replace the muscle and sinew of the laborer, can only be done through the process of digestion.

Every nerve, muscle, sinew, every drop of blood is extracted from the food we eat and digest.

Every nerve, musce, such of blood is extracted from the food we sat and digest.

In these days of hustle and worry, and artificial habits of life, scarcely one person in a thousand can lay claim to a perfect digestion; dyspepsia is a national affliction and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a national bloosing.

digestion; dyspepsia is a national affliction and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a national blessing.

Most cases of poor digestion are caused by failure of the stomach to secrete sufficient gastric juice, or too little Hydrochloric acid and lack of peptones and all of these important essentials to perfect digestion are found in Stuart's Dyspesia Tablets in convenient palatable form.

One or two of these tablets taken after meals insure perfect digestion and assimilation of the food.

Cathartic pills and laxative medicines have no effect whatever in digesting food and to call such remedies a cure for dyspepsia is far fetched and absurd.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets contain pepsin free from animal matter, diastase and other digestives, and not only digest all wholesome food but tend to increase the flow of gastric juices and by giving the weak stomach a much-needed rest bring about a healthy condition of the digestive organs and a normal appetite.

Nervous, thin-blooded, run-down people should bear in mind, that drugs and stimulants cannot furnish good blood, strong muscles and steady nerves; these come only from wholesome food, thoroughly digested: a fifty cent box of Stuart's Tablets taken after meals for a tew weeks, will do you more real good than drugs, stimulants and dieting combined.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is probably the safest, most popular and successful digestive on the market and sold by druggists everywhere in the United States, Canada and Great Britain.

Shortly before daybreak yesterday morning there was a baby landsinde in the railway tunnel mear Chatsworth Park. A few feet of rock was the extent of it, but as far as it concerned a German laborer named. Hennin, it might as well have been a mighty avalanche. He was struck by the falling rock and killed.

The silde took place just above what is known as "the bench," about four hundred feet in, and caught several other men working on the night snift. They were bruised, but none but Hennin was badly hurt. His skull was franched, and he lived but a few heurs.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Los Angeles Ebell.

The French section of the Ebell Society, Mrs. S. E. Page, curator, held its usual meeting yesterday morning. In addition to the conversation lesson, a great deal of important business required the attention of the members, in connection with the proposition to present a short French comedy on the day of the section report, April 1. The comedy to be presented will contain about seven characters, and the section members to whom parts are not assigned will nearly all act as understudies, for the benefit of the practice in French.

Following the French section, the tourish section held its first meeting for the present club year. The most of the hour was devoted to the discussion of a plan for work. It was decided not to follow quite the same line as last year. It is proposed to make the work more systematic. Each member will be expected to give, in the section hour, a resumé of some book, short story, or anecdote that she may have read, and stories and anecdotes suggested by such resumés will then be in order. No papers of any sort will be prepared; the intent is to cultivate the power of ready relation.
